Despite the various gloomy views taken and expressed by operators for a decline, stocks by foreign selling, a drive against the industrials and gold exports, but covering of shorts in the afternoon gave sufficient strength to the majority of shares to cause net gains for the day. There was an increase in activity, due, however, to heavier dealing in Sugar Refining and American Tobacco, the rest of the market showing little signs of liquidation. The indictment of the directors of the American Tobacco Company caused a break of 3 per cent in Tobacco stock, but its net loss for the day was under 1½ per cent. The rest of the industrial list was more or less affected by the decline in Tobacco, but late recoveries gave gains at the close. Early declines in the railway shares were offset by advances in the afternoon, and closing prices were firm at about the best of the day. The market has been stagnant all the week, and operators who employ their time in making a living out of small deals on small fractional changes have had it all to themselves, apparently enjoying their own little agitation over gold exports, lack of foreign support in the market and the political campaign, all of which factors they have considered gloomy and unfavorable. The financonsidered gloomy and unfavorable. The financial community as a whole is not concerning itself with the stock market, except to take a tight grip upon its holdings and to express continued confidence in the future.

Efforts to create a sentiment unfavorable to Major McKinley in Wall Street are not meeting success, and the few opposed to him might find a better field for their talents than seeking to undermine confidence at home and abroad by questioning the money views of Major McKinley. Major McKinley believes that the safety of the Nation depends upon the maintenance of a sound-money basis, and if he is nominated for the Presidency, as it now seems certain, he will be elected upon a sound-money platform, as well as upon a platform for protection. There should be an end of doubts and suspicions in the financial community regarding Major McKinley, and for the benefit of the small circle of people who are filled with these doubts and suspicions a dispatch received from Cincinnati by a local news bureau to-day is herewith printed: "I can state on authority that the money part of the Indiana platform was sanctioned by McKinley before presented to the convention." The money part of the platform is this: "We are firm and emphatic in our demand for honest money. We believe that our money should not be inferior to the money of the most enlightened nations of the earth. We are unalterably opposed to every scheme that threatens to debase or depreciate our currency. We favor the use of silver as currency, but to the extent only and under such regulations that its parity with gold can be maintained, and in consequence are opposed to the free, unlimited and independent coinage of silver at a ratio of 16 to 1."

Gold exports to-morrow will amount to $1,500,000.

Transactions in railway bonds were well distributed, but the volume of business was small. The chief activity was in the Atchison, Reading and Northern Pacific issues, and Missouri, Kansas and Texas 2ds. Final changes showed declines in the majority of issues, but, with the exception of Reading first preference incomes, which lost 1½ to 30, they were only fractional among the chief active shares. Some of the weak features were Atchison adjustment 4s, which were down % to 41½; Kansas and Texas 2da, ¼ to 59; Reading third preference incomes, ¼ to 15½; San Antonio and Aransas Pass 4s, ½ to 57; Southern Pacific of Arizona, ¾ to 90%; Northern Pacific consol 5s receipts, ¼ to 50; Mobile and Ohlo 4s, ¼ to 66%, and Duluth and Manitooa 1sts, ½ to 86, Rock Island extension 5s, Erie 4s prior bonds, and Southern Railway first 5e were fractionally higher.

"Dun's Review" for this week says: "That exports of $5.850,000 gold this week have produced no monetary disturbance is at once proof of the goundness of financial conditions and of the prevailing confidence in better things to come. some months. Undervaluations of goods, in some classes checked, continue in others, and materially swell balances payable. But home money is in better demand and more easy to get, and greatly improved commercial settlements have their natural effect in greater freedom of commercial loans. Talk of foreign affairs has no influence, and the decrease of 10.2 per cent in imports here against 4 per cent in exports indicates that merchandise operations are colling for smaller payments in settlement of balances. Domestic exchanges are barely 5 per cent larger than last year, but 19 per cent smaller than in 1823, when business had begun to shrink on account of the panic."

The Reorganization Committee of the Memphis and Charleston Railroad Company, consisting of Adrian Iselin, jr., Frederic Cromwell, W. Emlen Roosevelt and Edward N. Gibbs, announce that they have carefully examined the reorganization plan recently proposed by Simon Borg and others, and do not approve of it. They strongly advise all holders of the securities of the company and certificates of the Guaranty Trust Company of New-York issued against the same not to deposit them under that plan. They state that the plan heretofore issued by them has been accepted by more than 95 per cent of all the 7 per cent bondholders, that such plan has been declared operative, and that it is, in their judgment, the most favorable plan for all interests.
